Olympic competition format

Rowing at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games will comprise eight men's and six women's events:

Men	Olympic boat classes	Women
M2x	Double sculls	W2x
M2-	Pair	W2-
M4-	Four	-
M1x	Single sculls	W1x
M4x	Quadruple sculls	W4x
M8+	Eight	W8+
LM2x	Lightweight double sculls	LW2x
LM4-	Lightweight four	-

Lightweight classification rules

In the men's lightweight classes no rower may weigh more than 72.5kg and the crew average weight should not exceed 70kg. In the women's lightweight classes no rower should weigh more than 59kg and the crew average weight should not exceed 57kg. Crews must weigh in between one and two hours before their first race on each day.

Heats, repechages, quarterfinals, semi-finals and finals

Olympic competition is organised in several phases. The number of rounds, and the progression from the first round to the finals, depends on the number of boats entered in a particular event. Competition in all events begins with heats.

Events with between seven and 12 boats:

The top ranked crew in each heat (in events with 9 - 10 boats it is the top two ranked crews) will proceed directly to final A – which will determine the medals and places 4-6. The remaining crews will progress to the repechage round. This offers them a second chance to qualify for final A. The top two ranked crews (in events with 7 - 8 boats it is the top four ranked crews) in each repechage advance to the final A. Unsuccessful crews from the repechage round will compete in final B to determine places 7-12. In events with seven boats there will be no final B.

Events with between 13 and 24 boats:

The top ranked crews from the heats will qualify directly to the semifinals A/B. The top three ranked crews in each semi-final A/B will qualify to the final A. The remaining crews from semi-finals A/B will compete in final B.

Crews that do not qualify directly to semi-finals A/B from the heats will progress to the repechage round. This offers them a second chance to qualify to semi-finals A/B. Unsuccessful crews from the repechage round will compete in semi-finals C/D, from where they will qualify to finals C or D. These finals will determine places 13-18 (C) and 19-24 (D).

In events with 13-18 boats, there will only be the semi-finals A/B, and the remaining crews after the repechage will advance directly to final C. In events with 13 entries there is no final C.

Events with between 25 and 30 boats:

The top four boats in each heat qualify directly to the quarterfinals. The first three finishers in each of the four quarterfinals progress to the semi-finals A/B, with the top three finishers in each semifinal A/B proceeding to final A and the remainder to final B. The remaining boats from the quarterfinals will proceed to semifinals C/D where they will compete for places 13-24.

All crews that fail to qualify from the heats directly to the quarterfinals will compete in the repechage round. This offers crews a second chance, with the top finishing crews progressing to the quarterfinals. The remaining crews from the repechages compete in final E.

Events with between 31 and 36 boats:

The top three boats in each heat qualify directly to the quarterfinals. The first three finishers in each of the four quarterfinals progress to the semifinals A/B, with the top three finishers in each semifinal proceeding to final A and the remainder to final B. The remaining boats from the quarterfinals will proceed to semifinals C/D and finals C and D, where they will compete for places 13-24.

All crews that fail to qualify from the heats directly to the quarterfinals will compete in the repechage rounds. This offers crews a second chance, with the top finishing crews progressing to the quarterfinals. The remaining crews from the repechages compete in semifinals E/F, from which they will progress to finals E or F.

Information on how boats will progress (i.e. which round they will compete in next) is available on all start and results lists.

Differences between the FISA Rowing World Championships and the Olympic Games

There are 14 events at the Olympic Games, whereas the International Rowing Federation (FISA) World Championships comprises 22 events. The additional events at the world championships are: M2+ (men's coxed pair), LM1x (lightweight men's single sculls), LM4x (lightweight men's quadruple sculls), LM2- (lightweight men's pair), LM8+ (lightweight men's eight), W4- (women's four), LW1x (lightweight women's single sculls), LW4x (lightweight women's quadruple sculls).

In addition, the world championships include five para-rowing events.

Changes since the London 2012 Olympic Games

There have been changes to the number of crews per event, bringing the ratio of women to men from 36% in London to 40% in Rio in an important step towards achieving gender equity by 2020.

Sport rules and procedures

Race distance

2000m (six lanes, each lane 12.5m-13.5m wide).

Lane assignment

For all heats, lane assignments are decided by a draw. However, up to two crews will be seeded per heat, determined by an expert panel based on crews' past performances.

In finals of events in which there are semifinals, the winners of the semifinals will compete in the inner lanes. In finals of events without semifinals, the winners of the heats will compete in the inner lanes. In the case of unfair weather conditions, lanes could be re-assigned to allow the boats with better results from previous rounds to compete in the more favourable lanes.

Crew changes

NOCs may substitute up to half of the number of rowers in all crews entered. The changes must be communicated in writing to the Control Commission at least one hour before the first heat in the relevant event.

A crew that has already raced in the heats may not make changes to its crew members, except in the case of a serious illness or accident.

If a single sculler falls ill or is injured, he/she may be replaced before their heat. No substitution may be made for a single sculler after they have competed in their heat.

Tiebreak rules and procedures

If a dead heat occurs in any round before the finals, results achieved during previous rounds will be considered or a re-row will be organised to break the tie. If a dead heat occurs in a final the tied boats will be given equal ranking and the next placing left vacant; if the tie is for a medal position then additional medals will be awarded.

Time trial - race format

In the case of unfair weather conditions, the FISA executive committee may decide to implement a time trial system for each individual race. For example, if there were four heats in the official draw then there will be separate time trial races to determine the order of finish in each heat. The results will then be dealt with in accordance with the usual FISA progression system.

The time trial will take place from the normal fixed starting position. Boats will start every 30 seconds and race over 2000m. In normal circumstances a time trial will be raced using only one lane, however if conditions are equal in two lanes, then the time trial can be raced with boats starting alternately in two lanes.

Penalties/disqualification rules

The board of the jury may impose the following penalties on rowers, coxswains or persons accompanying them:

- Reprimand.
- Warning, indicated by a yellow card (applying to the next round in which the boat competes).
- Relegation (where specifically provided for in the rules, a boat can be relegated to last position in its race).
- Exclusion, indicated by a red card (from all the rounds of the event in question).
- Disqualification (from all events at the Games).
- Any other appropriate measure in order to ensure the fairness of the competition.

Exclusion

A crew arriving at the start after the start time or causing two false starts in the same race shall be excluded. Crews interfering with their opponents may be excluded by the umpire but, in principle, only after a warning has been given.

Objections

A crew claiming that its race has been improperly run or judged must make an objection to the umpire immediately after the end of the race, and before leaving the area of the finish line, except when prevented from doing so by unavoidable circumstances. A crew excluded at the start may make an objection to the umpire at that time.

Protests

A crew whose objection has been rejected, or crews affected by the acceptance of an objection, or crews disputing published results, may lodge a protest in writing to the board of the jury. All protests must be lodged not later than one hour after the umpire has communicated his decision regarding the objection or, in the case of disputing the published results, one hour after the results have been published. The board of the jury shall decide if the protest is justified.

Australia's HORE bows out in tears as regatta resumes

Monday, 08 August 2016 - 15:27

RIO DE JANEIRO - Four-time Olympian Kerry HORE (AUS) broke down in tears after she crashed out of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games when rowing resumed on Monday.

After strong winds forced competition to be suspended on Sunday, two days of racing were packed into the programme at Lagoa Stadium.

While the favourites in all the events moved safely through to the next round, there was heartbreak for some as failure to qualify meant the end of their Olympic Games.

HORE, who won bronze at Athens 2004, wept and had to be held up by teammates after the Australian women's quadruple sculls crew missed out on a place in Wednesday's final. HORE said she could not have done more to end her Olympic career on a high.

Pre-race favourites Helen GLOVER/Heather STANNING (GBR) just held off Anne ANDERSEN/Hedvig RASMUSSEN (DEN) in the women's pairs.

The Danes led the Olympic champions through 1500m, but GLOVER/STANNING took the lead in the final quarter to win by 0.23 seconds and maintain their record of being unbeaten since 2011.

Nenad BEDIK/Milos VASIC (SRB) put Saturday's capsize behind them to qualify for the semifinals of the men's pairs in second place behind Roel BRAAS/Mitchel STEENMAN (NED).

The men's and women's eights champions from the London 2012 Olympic Games, Germany and USA respectively, booked their places in Saturday's finals, where both will be joined by Great Britain. The remaining finalists will be decided on Wednesday.

Tuesday's action

Racing on Tuesday begins with the quarterfinals of the men's single sculls. The second quarterfinal features London 2012 gold and silver medallists, Mahe DRYSDALE (NZL) and Ondrej SYNEK (CZE).

Tuesday's action also features the semifinals of the men's and women's double sculls, the men's pairs and the lightweight men's fours.

Great Britain secures double gold as Ireland writes national rowing history

Friday, 12 August 2016 - 13:18

RIO DE JANEIRO - Great Britain's men's four and women's pair won the gold medals they had expected at Lagoa Stadium on Friday, as favourites Netherlands and France triumphed in the lightweight doubles events.

Although all four finals were won by the pre-race favourites, there were upsets in the other medals with several won by crews which had only just made it to the finals.

Perhaps the most popular was Ireland's silver medal in the lightweight men's doubles, the National Olympic Committee's first in Olympic rowing.

Brothers Paul O'DONOVAN (IRL) and Gary O'DONOVAN (IRL) have won fans around the world for their enthusiasm after each race. They won their medal in a sprint for the line with bronze medallists Kristoffer BRUN/Are STRANDLI (NOR).

While world champions Jeremie AZOU/Pierre HOUIN (FRA) won the lightweight men's doubles there was disappointment for lightweight women's double sculls world champions Julia EDWARD/Sophie MACKENZIE (NZL).

The New Zealanders finished fourth as holders of the world's best time Ilse PAULIS/Maaike HEAD (NED) pushed through the field to win the closing sprint, ahead of a delighted Patricia OBEE/Lindsay JENNERICH (CAN) and HUANG Wenyi/PAN Feihong (CHN).

Helen GLOVER/Heather STANNING (GBR) are also world champions in their boat class, the women's pair.

After surviving a scare in the heats when Anne ANDERSEN/Hedvig RASMUSSEN (DEN) led them to 1500m, GLOVER and STANNING made no errors in the final.

ANDERSEN/RASMUSSEN said they were surprised with their bronze, behind Rebecca SCOWN/Genevieve BEHRENT (NZL) who are also racing in the women's eight final tomorrow.

In the men's four, Constantine LOULOUSIS/George NASH/Mohamed SBIHI/Alex GREGORY (GBR) made it five Olympic gold medals in a row for Great Britain in this boat class. GREGORY was in the boat which triumphed at the London 2012 Olympic Games.

Behind them Australia's Alexander HILL/Joshua BOOTH/Joshua DUNKLEY-SMITH/William LOCKWOOD (AUS) won a third successive silver medal - the second in a row for DUNKLEY-SMITH and LOCKWOOD.

Saturday's action

The final day of rowing at the Lagoa Stadium will see medals handed out in the sport's blue riband events - the men's and women's singles and the men's and women's eights.

London 2012 women's single sculls champion Miroslava TOPINKOVA KNAPKOVA (CZE) will not defend her title after finishing fourth in Friday's semifinal.

High winds and drama at Lagoa mark first day of rowing

Saturday, 06 August 2016 - 15:09

RIO DE JANEIRO - Milos VASIC \(SRB\) and Nenad BEDIK (SRB) ended up in the water during a drama-filled first day of rowing at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games on Saturday.

The Serbian men's pair capsized in the last 500m of their heat, becoming the first crew to fall in at an Olympic Games since the New Zealand women's pair at the Athens 2004 Games.

However, the Serbians have a chance to rescue their hopes in Sunday's repechage.

Things went more smoothly for world and Olympic champions Hamish BOND/Eric MURRAY (NZL) in the same heat, with the pair notching up their 67th successive international win to cruise through to the semifinals.

After a calm start to the morning, the wind picked up and caused many crews problems in the middle 1000m of the race. Kjetil BORCH (NOR) described the conditions as a "war" after his heat of the men's double sculls.

The biggest upset came in the first heat of the women's single sculls when Kenia LECHUGA ALANIS (MEX) and Micheen Barbara THORNYCROFT (ZIM) beat world champion Kimberley BRENNAN (AUS).

BRENNAN has not been beaten in this event since 2014 and made a good start before struggling in the choppy conditions. Afterwards she blamed her performance on poor preparation, saying that she had chosen her "calm water" boat for the race but that it had filled up with water.

Despite the wind there were close finishes in several races. The Italian lightweight men's four upset the form book by beating world champions Switzerland and world championship bronze medallists France in heat one of that event, with Italy, China and Switzerland finishing within 0.3 seconds of each other in first, second and third.

There was also a photo finish in the first heat of the men's double sculls, with Robert MANSON/Christopher HARRIS (NZL) edging out Aleksandar ALEKSANDROV/Boris YOTOV (AZE).

Sunday's racing

Sunday's racing will feature Olympic women's pair champions Helen GLOVER/Heather STANNING (GBR) as more heats get underway.

The lightweight men's and women's doubles as well as the men's four entrants also race their heats.

Meanwhile, crews from Saturday's racing who failed to progress to the next round of their events will get a second chance in the repechages.

Photofinishes add drama as GB and USA strike gold in rowing

Saturday, 13 August 2016 - 12:28

RIO DE JANEIRO - Rowing reached a thrilling conclusion on Saturday at the Lagoa Stadium with two photo finishes, two Olympic champions defending their titles and two new winners crowned.

From the start of the first final of the day, the men's single sculls, the crowd was treated to displays of scintillating racing. Damir MARTIN \(CRO\) and Ondrej SYNEK \(CZE\) took out the early lead leaving defending champion Mahe DRYSDALE \(NZL\) in their wake.

But DRYSDALE fought back in the second half of the race and, as SYNEK faded, it was a battle for gold between the experienced Kiwi and MARTIN. On the line there was nothing to separate them and it was a while before officials declared DRYSDALE the winner in an Olympic best time of six minutes 41.34 seconds - with MARTIN second on the same time.

The winner of the women's single sculls was never in doubt, with Kimberley BRENNAN \(AUS\) leading from the start. Behind her there was a three-boat fight for the minor medals, with Genevra STONE \(USA\) coming through for silver and DUAN Jingli \(CHN\) holding off Emma TWIGG \(NZL\) for bronze.

The women's eights final did not run to the pre-race script. The USA, undefeated for 10 years on the world stage, had a slow start and Canada shot out of the blocks.

By 1500m the USA had taken the lead and Great Britain had moved into third. Canada's fast start cost them and they slipped back into sixth.

In the sprint for the line Romania closed hard on Great Britain. USA took the gold and after a photo finish the British crew were declared the silver medallists, 0.12 seconds ahead of a delighted Romania.

Germany came into the Olympic regatta as champions but Great Britain had won the last three world championships in the men's eight and were determined to add Olympic gold to that collection.

The British made no mistakes, leading from the first stroke. Behind them Germany scraped into second ahead of the Netherlands, concluding a stellar morning's racing on the Lagoa Rodrigo de Freitas.

Shock and jubilation on Lagoa as world champions crash out

Tuesday, 09 August 2016 - 14:45

RIO DE JANEIRO - Greece's lightweight men's four and women's double produced two stunning races at the Lagoa Stadium on Tuesday to qualify for the finals of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games rowing regatta.

Aikaterini NIKOLAIDOU/Sofia ASOUMANAKI (GRE) rowed a strong middle 1000m to secure their A-final spot but world champions Eve MACFARLANE/Zoe STEVENSON (NZL) were outsprinted by Meghan O'LEARY/Ellen TOMEK (USA) to miss out in the women's double.

The Greek lightweight men's four have only been back in training a week. They were the next-placed crew to qualify for the Olympic Games after Russia, which was excluded last week due to doping sanctions.

The Greek's third place in today's semifinal means they could now be in the hunt for the medals in Thursday's final.

Both Greek crews and their supporters were ecstatic after their races, leaping out of their boats to greet supporters on the bank.

Olympic lightweight men's double sculls champions Rasmus QUIST/Mads RASMUSSEN (DEN) are also still in the competition after winning today's repechage.

Afterwards QUIST conceded that the duo were lucky to be at the Games, with their place solely due to Belgium choosing not to race its lightweight double which won the final Olympic qualification regatta in Lucerne, Switzerland earlier this year.

But lightweight women's double sculls champion Katherine COPELAND (GBR) will not get a chance to defend her title. COPELAND and partner Charlotte TAYLOR (GBR) had a poor start in their repechage, finishing third, and will race again on Wednesday for a place in the C final.

In the men's pairs it was business as usual for Eric MURRAY/Hamish BOND (NZL) who extended their unbeaten streak to 68 races. Asked what makes the pairing so much quicker than other crews, MURRAY joked: "We're just better looking."

Wednesday's action

The first rowing medals of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games will be handed out on Wednesday as finals of the men's and women's quadruple sculls take place.

Germany's women's crew features two-time silver medallist Annekatrin THIELE (GER), who in her third Games is hoping for the gold medal which has so far eluded her.

Rowers will also race for final places in the women's pairs, lightweight men's and women's double sculls, men's fours and both men's and women's eights.

THIELE strikes gold at last for Germany as GRAINGER makes it five medals

Thursday, 11 August 2016 - 13:32

RIO DE JANEIRO - Germany got its Rio 2016 Olympic Games rowing finals off to a flying start on Thursday with wins in both the men's and women's quadruple sculls, setting the scene for a day of thrilling racing.

The gold medal for the women was third time lucky for Annekatrin THIELE \(GER\), who won silver medals in this boat class at the last two Olympic Games.

Meanwhile, Katherine GRAINGER became the first woman from Great Britain to win a medal at five Olympic Games when she added a fourth silver to her gold at London 2012 by finishing second in the women's double sculls with partner Victoria THORNLEY \(GBR\).

The British duo led in the early stages of the race but were overhauled by Magdalena FULARCZYK-KOZLOWSKA/Natalia MADAJ \(POL\) in the final 500m.

GRAINGER (GBR) joined Kitty McKANE, who won five medals in tennis 1920-1924, as the British woman with most Olympic medals.

Germany's win in the men's quadruple sculls meant they retained their London 2012 title. The results of the event, in which Australia won silver and Estonia bronze, replicated the 2015 World Championship results.

Eric MURRAY \(NZL\) and Hamish BOND \(NZL\) also retained their London 2012 title, extending their unbeaten run to 69 races. Behind them Lawrence BRITTAIN \(RSA\) and Shaun KEELING \(RSA\) secured silver in the men's pairs final, with the win coming only 18 months after BRITTAIN recovered from Hodgkins lymphoma in 2015.

Brothers Martin SINKOVIC/Valent SINKOVIC \(CRO\) delivered a gold for Croatia in the men's double sculls, improving on their men's quadruple sculls silver from London.

Behind them Olaf TUFTE \(NOR\) added another bronze to his medal collection with Kjetil BORCH \(NOR\) in the men's double sculls, which includes two single sculls golds from Athens 2004 and Beijing 2008 as well as a silver in the double sculls from Sydney 2000.

The A finals concluded with a typically close race in the lightweight men's fours, with world championship silver medallists Switzerland taking the win by just under 1.5 seconds from Denmark, with France less than a second back for bronze.

The day began with close racing in several semifinals. Results included lightweight men's double sculls champions Rasmus QUIST/Mads RASMUSSEN \(DEN\) finishing fifth in their race, meaning they will not get a chance to defend their London 2012 title.

Friday's action

The last of the semifinals features the men's and women's single sculls, while medals will be handed out in the lightweight men's and women's double sculls, the women's pairs and men's four.

British rowers leave Lagoa on a high after historic climax

Saturday, 13 August 2016 - 16:43

RIO DE JANEIRO - The conditions may have been challenging throughout but the Rio 2016 Olympic Games rowing regatta finished on a historic high as Great Britain's third gold saw them top the medal table.

Germany and New Zealand tied for second, with both winning two gold medals and a silver. Germany won the men's and women's quadruple sculls and New Zealand the men's pair and men's single sculls.

The men's pair was the 69th successive win for Hamish BOND/Eric MURRAY (NZL), the longest unbeaten streak in rowing history.

A total of 21 countries won medals at the Lagoa Stadium across three days of finals - with six finals on Thursday after Wednesday's racing was cancelled.

Great Britain's win in the men's eight on Saturday followed golds in the men's four and women's pair and silvers for the women's eight and women's double sculls. British crews have now won the men's four at five consecutive Olympic Games.

Meanwhile Helen GLOVER/Heather STANNING (GBR)'s win in the women's pair marked the first time a British women's crew has defended an Olympic title. The women's eight's silver was the first in this boat class for Great Britain.

Other historic wins at the regatta included the first Olympic gold medal in rowing for Croatia as brothers Martin SINKOVIC/Valent SINKOVIC (CRO) won the men's double sculls.

Magdalena FULARCZYK-KOSLOWSKA/Natalia MADAJ (POL)'s victory in the women's double sculls was Poland's first women's rowing gold medal at an Olympic Games, and Kimberley BRENNAN (AUS) won the first women's single sculls title for her country.

Ireland picked up its first Olympic rowing medal with a silver for brothers Gary O'DONOVAN/Paul O'DONOVAN (IRL) in the lightweight men's double sculls.

The regatta was the last Olympic Games for several athletes. Those who announced their retirements included eight-time Olympian Lesley THOMPSON-WILLIE (CAN) bowing out after finishing fifth in the women's eights, seven-time Olympian Ekaterina KARSTEN (BLR), who concluded her career with an eighth-place finish in the women's single sculls, and Katherine GRAINGER (GBR), who picked up her fifth successive medal with a silver in the women's double sculls to become Great Britain's most decorated female Olympian.

Other historic moments on the Lagoa Rodrigo de Freitas included the first capsize since the Athens 2004 Olympic Games as Nenad BEDIK/Milos VASIC (SRB) fell in rough water on the first day's racing.

Vladislav YAKOVLEV (KAZ) also capsized in both his repechage and semifinal, but made it safely to the finish line in the F final of the men's single sculls.
